32nd meeting

Paragraph 32

The last sentence of the paragraph should read:

As of 20 November 1996, the market value of the Fund had reached an all-time high of $17,005 million, an annualized increase of 15.2 per cent since 31 March 1996.

57th meeting

Paragraph 5

At the end of the paragraph, add:

In response to the delegate who had spoken before him and blamed Lebanese citizens for the incident at Qana, he said that Israel was the last one entitled to talk about terrorism, describing innocent Lebanese civilians as terrorists, because Israel had set a typical example of state terrorism by attacking UNIFIL headquarters and by the continuous daily attacks that had preceded that act of aggression against a United Nations centre. The pretext that the Israeli delegate mentioned was null, since the General Assembly had condemned that act of aggression last year. Israel could no longer hide behind the false claims of fighting terrorism.
